Annual Agreement

I agree to volunteer for the N.C. Center for Nonprofits' Pro Bono Coaching Assistance Program, and I am familiar with how the program works. I understand that:

1. Participating professional Coaches provide free coaching to 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organizations that are Members of the N.C. Center for Nonprofits. Pro bono coaching will be limited to five hours per individual or team client. Additional coaching may be provided at a negotiated fee.
2. When a nonprofit Member of the N.C. Center contacts the Board and Staff Helpline with a need, N.C. Center staff will determine if it's appropriate for a coaching solution.
3. Center staff will then contact a professional ICF-RAC Member Coach, who has volunteered through the CCO program to provide services and who has relevant expertise to see if he/she is available. If I am contacted, I understand that I can choose to accept or decline, but either way, I will reply as soon as possible to let the N.C. Center know.
4. The Center will require that the nonprofit sign a "hold harmless" waiver protecting the volunteer and the N.C. Center. For my part, I understand that I am to follow the ICF Code of Ethics, including providing service only within the defined boundaries of coaching and, that the N.C. Center will not provide professional liability insurance or indemnification for any services that I provide, and that I am responsible for maintaining my own professional liability insurance.
5. The N.C. Center will then give my contact information to the nonprofit, who will contact me directly. I understand that I am to reply to the nonprofit within 3 business days.
